Withdrawal of Reds Ordered By Souvanna

Neutralist Leader Flays Seizure of Two Laos Outposts

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Prince Souvanna Phouma has ordered pro-Communist Prince Souphanouvong to withdraw his Pathet Lao troops from Nam Tha and Muong Sing to behind the original cease-fire line, informed diplomatic sources said today.

The informants said the neutralist leader sent a cable from France to Souphanouvong, his half-brother and ally, denouncing the seizure of the two government outposts in northwest Laos as a violation of the year-old cease-fire.

Arranges For Withdrawal

Souvanna, the Soviet and American choice to head a neutralist regime in the jungle kingdom, reportedly also called his acting premier, Phagna Khamsoukeola, at rebel headquarters at Khang Kay to arrange for the withdrawal of the pro-Communist troops.

Souvanna left for Paris five weeks ago to stay until June 1 for medical treatment and the wedding of a daughter. He told French newsmen Wednesday night he was prepared to return to Laos any time Prince Boun Oum's right-wing regime formally requests resumption of talks on formation of a coalition government of Communists, conservatives and neutralists.

Ready To Resume Talks

Souphanouvong's pro-Communist rebels also were reported ready to return to unity talks. Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, deputy premier and strongman of the royal Lao government, said despite the Pathet Lao attacks, he still was ready to negotiate. But he demanded that Souvanna first return to Laos and give assurances that he is truly neutral. Before his departure for France, Souvanna publicly pledged that his neutralist and pro-Communist troops would not attack unless they were themselves attacked. He told French newsmen that he believed Nam Tha "was not attacked deliberately" but that royal government forces in trying to break the rebel siege of the provincial capital might have provoked the assault last weekend.

Fund Drive Set by Junior Baseball Loop

The annual fund drive of the Salem Junior Baseball League will be held Friday evening and Saturday, according to John Herman, Jr., president of the leagues. Team members will be on downtown streets from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. Friday, seeking donations. A house-to-house canvass will be made Saturday morning, starting at 9:30. The ballplayers also will tag on the downtown streets Saturday until 6 p.m.

Except for fees received from various team sponsors, the Salem Junior Baseball League is self-supporting. The cost of operating during the 1961 season was $7,680. Herman says every cent taken in by the leagues is spent in Salem. He points out that the cost for equipment, umpires, scorekeepers and insurance has been increasing each year. Adult managers and coaches serve without pay.

Last year about 640 boys took part in the Junior League program. This year more than 700 have indicated a desire to play. Herman says it is imperative that the leagues raise some money to build new playing fields.

League officials have set an operating budget of $8,100 for the 1962 season. The tag days and

JFK, Dillon Urge Tax Bill Passage

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration's appeal to the Senate Finance Committee for favorable action on its tax revision bill ends today where it began more than a month ago—with a plea from Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon.

More than 200 witnesses have been before the committee since Dillon made his first plea April 2 for tax withholding on dividends and interest. As he returns he will find this provision—and several others—in serious trouble.

In an effort to muster support for the measure, President Kennedy opened his news conference Wednesday with a lengthy statement that he said would set the record straight on his withholding plan.

He declared the government would collect taxes on dividends and interest the same way it has collected on wages and salaries for years. Evaders would be adversely affected if the bill became law, he said.

Democratic leaders had urged the President to make such a statement. They said today they were strongly hopeful his presentation would stem the tremendous tide of mail running against the withholding plan—and perhaps reverse it.

This deluge of letters—some senators have received many thousands—has caused even strong administration supporters to have second thoughts.

Some who still intend to vote for it say that many of the writers are badly misinformed. Finance Committee Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., told a reporter after Kennedy's statement that he was keeping an open mind on the provision. But he has expressed serious doubts about hardships it might cause.

24 Killed In Crash Of Brazilian Plane

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Coming in for a landing in a rainstorm, a Brazilian airliner with 27 persons aboard crashed and exploded at Vitoria Wednesday night. Police said there were only three known survivors.

The twin-engine Convair 440 took off from Rio de Janeiro for the Brazilian port city 250 miles north of here on the Atlantic Coast with 22 passengers.

Officials of the Cruzeiro do Sul airline said they did not know if there were any foreigners aboard. The airliner burst into flames as it was making its landing approach and blew up after plunging to the ground. The wreckage burned for hours and only one body was recovered immediately.

Estes Slapped With $544,162 In Penalties

Officials Uncertain They Can Make Assessment Stick

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department has levied a $544,162 penalty against Billie Sol Estes for his cotton production operations. But officials were not too confident today they could make the big assessment stick.

The West Texas financier who is under fraud indictment was penalized for producing cotton on acreage allotments which, the department contends, he had secured illegally from farmers displaced by the government.

Estes has a right under farm law to appeal the penalty to a local farmer committee of three. Should it rule his operations were legal the penalty would be canceled and there would be nothing more the department could do about it.

In expressing some uncertainty, officials emphasized that Estes' controversial cotton operations present fine legal points which do not make a clearcut case that he acted improperly and illegally.

Should the farmer committee fine for the department, Estes could appeal to the courts. Not so with the department if a committee decision goes against it.

Estes was not available for comment Wednesday.

Last month a federal grand jury indicted Estes for fraud in connection with chattel mortgages he was charged with selling on non-existent fertilizer tanks. And, a Senate subcommittee is investigating whether he received favored treatment from Agriculture Department officials.

In the wake of charges of favored treatment one department official was forced to resign, another has been fired and a third is under investigation.

Meanwhile, there were reports that Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman would shake up personnel in the department who passed on a $700,000 bond Estes posted to protect the government from loss on upwards of $50 million worth of surplus grain he stored in his warehouses.

The penalty was assessed against 1961 crop cotton Estes, 37, drew on federal planting allotments which he said he leased from owners of the allotments.

The allotments — totaling 3,123 acres in West Texas—had been pooled under farm law by farmers whose land had been taken over by government agencies under the right of eminent domain. The law allows such farmers to reclaim allotments for use on new farms they might buy, but it does not allow—in the department's opinion—sale of allotments as such.

Securities Sales Tactics Ripped Firm's Techniques Revealed by SEC

WASHINGTON (AP)—"Tricky techniques" for mutual fund salesmen are being explored at hearings by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

SEC attorney Meyer Eisenberg quoted at length Wednesday from training manuals outlining tactics which he suggested were quite out of keeping with the high standards professed by the fund industry, one of the fastest growing segments of the securities business.

The SEC is conducting a broad investigation of the entire securities industry.

The sales lessons cited by Eisenberg were taken from training manuals prepared by Kalb, Voorhis & Co., a New York Stock Exchange brokerage firm which specializes in the publication of sales and training aids for mutual fund retailers.

In one lesson, a novice salesman was urged to call a relative or friend and ask to see him to get advice. It said this should be enough to get him inside the house.

Once on the scene, he was told, he should say he was taking on a new job and wanted practice in trying out his sales presentation. He should ask his relative or friend to pretend to be a potential customer and ask whatever questions might come to mind during the sales talk.

Once the presentation had been made, the manual suggested, the salesman should say, "The more I think of it, George, the more I think you should invest in mutual funds." And he should go on from there to close the sale.

Another suggestion offered retailers by Kalb, Voorhis was to conduct "Mr. and Mrs. meetings" for salesmen and their wives. At

Rep. Hays to Speak At Sunday Event

Plan Dedication Of New Postoffice

(Photos On Page 22)

Every patron on mail routes served by the Salem Post Office has received invitations to attend the dedication ceremonies at the city's new Post Office building at the corner of Penn and Columbia Streets Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Congressman Wayne L. Hays will speak at the program which is being sponsored by the Salem Area Chamber of Commerce, the Manufacturers Association, the retail merchants and the Jaycees.

Assistant Postmaster Ray Reich, who is chairman of the dedication event, said plans are being made to accommodate a crowd of 2,000 persons. Postmasters from neighboring communities and several district post officials are expected to attend, including William J. Rahter of Cincinnati, assistant regional director.

The dedication program will be followed by an open house inspection of the new building from 3:30 to 5:30. Postal employees will act as guides and refreshments will be served by the Wives of Post Office Employees club.

The rear loading dock of the new post office will serve as a speaker's platform for the dedication program which will be preceded by a half-hour concert by the American Legion Quaker City Band.

A flag-raising ceremony will be in charge of John Herman, Jr. The massed color guard will be composed of local veterans organizations. The flag to be raised is one which flew over the nation's capitol and presented to Rep. Hays by Postmaster General J. Edward Day in Washington.

Postmaster Ray Reasbeck said that supervisors William M. Schaeffer and Henry M. Brobander are in charge of decorations and seating arrangements for the Sunday program.

The Rev. Fr. J. Richard Gaffney will give the invocation, J. Raymond Stiver, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will make the welcoming speech, and Rev. Harold Deitch will give the benediction.

Mayor Dean B. Cranmer will officiate at the ribbon-cutting ceremony, signaling the start of the open house inspection of the new building.

The present post office building at the downtown corner of State and Lincoln is to be abandoned. Built 50 years ago, it has not been adequate to take care of the needs of a continuously expanding community.

4 Executives Also Deny Price Fixing Counts

Officials Released Without Bonds By Federal Judge

NEW YORK (AP)—Four steel company executives, five steel companies and a trade association today pleaded innocent to charges of price fixing and bid rigging in violation of the Sherman Antitrust Act.

The four corporations are the Bethlehem Steel Co., U.S. Steel; Erie Forge and Steel Corp. and Midvale-Heppenstall Co. The association is the Open Die Forging Institute Inc. of New York City.

The executives are Erb Gurney, manager of Bethlehem's sales, forgings, castings and special products division; Robert S. Barnes, assistant manager of the same division; Emil Lang, board chairman of Erie Forge, and R. B. Heppenstall Sr., president of Midvale-Heppenstall.

When they appeared before federal Judge Sidney Sugarman he released the executives on their own recognizance—that is, without having to post bond.

JFK Minimizes Split on Berlin

Wants Lid Clamped On Consultations

WASHINGTON (AP) — In an effort to restore Allied harmony, the United States is reported seeking full clarification from the West German government of its stand on exploratory talks with the Soviet Union about terms of an East-West agreement on Berlin.

President Kennedy also made clear at a news conference Wednesday that he wants to see secrecy restored to Allied consultations on proposals put to the Soviet government during the talks. He seemed to be asking Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in a diplomatic way to stop debating the issues in public.

Other officials said there is considerable confusion here over what Adenauer is driving at. His public criticism of the U.S.-Soviet discussions is out of line with West German views communicated through official channels, they said.

Kennedy undertook at his news conference to play down reports of Allied differences over the talks.

He noted that Adenauer had said in Berlin earlier this week that he was not optimistic about the outcome.

The United States has never been unduly optimistic about achieving an East-West agreement, the President said, but "we believe there should be a continuation of these talks." And the West German government, he added, has supported continuation.

Kennedy said further that the U.S. proposal to Moscow for an international authority to operate the Berlin supply lines across East German territory has not been opposed by West Germany. He conceded differences over details of how such an organization could be set up but said such

Literacy Bill Demise In Senate Seen

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration's voter literacy bill still thrashed around in the Senate today, but it had been mortally wounded.

The death blow was struck with a 53-43 vote Wednesday against a bipartisan leadership move to invoke the Senate's antifilibuster rule and cut off debate. That was 21 votes short of the required two-thirds majority.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and 36 other senators immediately filed a second debate-limitation petition.

It will come to a vote Monday, but its defeat already is a foregone conclusion. Mansfield himself acknowledged this, saying he foresaw no significant shift in voting.

Despite the urging of some civil rights advocates to keep on with the battle, Mansfield has announced that he intends to drop the bill for this session of Congress if a second attempt to limit debate fails.

The bill, the chief civil rights measure proposed this session by President Kennedy, would exempt persons with a sixth-grade education from having to pass a state literacy test to qualify to vote in federal elections.

Supporters of the measure contend that racial discrimination in the administration of literacy tests has kept large numbers of Negroes from being registered as voters in about 100 counties in the South.

The bill's Southern foes denounced the measure as an unconstitutional invasion of states rights to determine voter qualifications.

Director Follows Usual Routine

WASHINGTON (AP)—J. Edgar Hoover's 38th anniversary as director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation was widely observed today. But not by Hoover.

"He refuses to treat it differently from any other working day," said an FBI spokesman.

Hoover, 67, steadfastly resisted suggestions of any special gathering to mark the latest milestone in his career.

No special luncheon, no dinner party, no interviews, said the spokesman.

But others insisted on taking note of the occasion.

President Kennedy sent a letter of congratulations.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy ordered up a cake.

MAN OVER NATURE — A man-made hole in the clouds more than three miles wide is clearly visible in photograph above. Using a cloud-seeding machine developed by Air Force Cambridge Research Laboratories scientists, a pilot created the hole in one hour with only eleven pounds of dry-ice pellets. The machine, dubbed "The Cloudbuster," was developed to give Air Force transport pilots the ability to make windows at will through supercooled cloud decks. At the touch of a lever, the machine can make different sized pellets from liquid carbon dioxide as well as control the rate of dispersal.

Billie Sol Estes Is a Symptom

Secretary of Agriculture Freeman concedes that his department was slow in coming to grips with the Billie Sol Estes problem that has shattered the composure of Texas and shaken Washington bureaucracy.

It can be conceded in turn that Secretary Freeman had nothing in his background to prepare him for coming to grips quickly with the kind of problem created by this fast-talking promoter whose "pitch" apparently depended in large part on a general belief he had an inside track with the Department of Agriculture. Even if congressional investigators sink their teeth into the Estes case with the same relish they used against Sherman Adams and his friend Bernard Goldfine, it is unlikely they will leave any marks on Secretary Freeman. It is entirely likely the record would make it appear he was imposed on as the public guardian of the vast sums of money that circulate through his department.

BILLIE SOL ESTES is not an isolated case of promotional enterprise gone wrong. He is a symptom of the menace that awaits all government employees who fail to be eternally alert to the possibility of exploitation by outsiders.

Mr. Estes is charged with obtaining by fraudulent means some $24 million from private lending sources on fertilizer tanks that never existed. This is a federal indictment. A Texas grand jury has indicted him on eight counts of felonious theft related to the same tank mortgages.

Congressional investigators are digging into his relations with the Department of Agriculture. Critics are hinting that Mr. Estes' contributions to the Democratic party may be slowing down the start of congressional hearings on material uncovered by the investigators.

One way and another, the Estes case is shaping up as a major scandal in the Kennedy administration, perhaps with repercussions going back to the Eisenhower administration. But however exciting and bizarre the details of this particular situation may be and no matter who gets it in the neck, the problem has become standard.

PRIVATE promoters and exploiters always are waiting for one more chance to take advantage of government personnel and government neglect wherever and whenever large sums of money are changing hands.

What Billie Sol Estes may have done remains to be proved in court. But what promoters and exploiters have done in the past is all in the record.

They have taken advantage of every government weakness they could find. Apparently, Mr. Estes also found some weaknesses to take advantage of in private lending sources, where government is everlastingly criticized for not knowing enough to protect itself against sharpies. That may have to be investigated too.

Big Steel to Its Stockholders

The explanation of United States Steel problems and policy prepared for the corporation's stockholders in their annual meeting is really an explanation of the entire steel industry's problems.

Roger M. Blough, chairman of the board of United States Steel, says nothing was solved by last month's events. The price increase that had to be rescinded when some of the corporation's competitors announced they would hold the price line still needs to be made.

Sentimental Voters

Voters have their favorite tax levies, as they do candidates, and Tuesday's primary balloting again showed voters' sentimental preferences.

The two-tenths mill levy for the retarded children's school passed almost two-to-one and the 8.5-mill operating levy for Salem public schools sailed by with a safe margin of 542 unofficial votes. The Salem parks levy also was renewed.

Rejected a second time, however, were the county commissioners' eight-tenths mill levy for current expenses and a seven-tenths mill levy for County Home maintenance, voters apparently still not satisfied that "all is well" at the Courthouse. Discord on the board of commissioners hasn't helped matters. What will happen with respect to the long-neglected County Home, recently threatened with closure by the state fire marshal, remains to be seen.

Republican voters made good primary choices when they nominated T. Emerson Smith of Salem for county auditor to face Auditor Kenneth Bell, a Democrat, in November, and James W. Boyd, popular Glenmoor lumber dealer, to oppose Frank Wilson of Wellsville, Democratic incumbent who has had troubles with Republican Commissioners Walter J. Hunston and Galen Greenisen ever since he got in office.

Once Over

Law Day was celebrated by America last week under sponsorship of the American Bar Association. But it was one of the usual days of wide lawlessness all over country, and there seemed to be a good many lawyers who celebrated the occasion by keeping in-famous violators in circulation. One day set aside to emphasize importance of law and need of highest respect for it is absurd, considering crime conditions.

National Law Month would be better, but whether it's a Law Day, a Law Week or a Law Month it should be celebrated with more emphasis, enthusiasm and general activity than is given to Banana, Hot Dog, Pizza Pie, Popcorn or Clam Fritters Week. Imagine 24 hours for the priceless blessings of law, and 30 days for National Tavern month!!!

A single day for law emphasis gets nowhere in important job of stirring public. And any significant celebration should include school and church programs, street parades, public ceremonies.

Hard fact is that there are famous lawyers, known to all readers of crime news, who on Law Day would not cut efforts to circumvent law and make life easier for hoods and other crooks. Probably quite a few spent the day writing books boasting of clever routines in seeing that notorious lawbreakers "beat the rap."

Newspapers on Law Day (and every day since) have been well filled with usual record of racketeers and public enemies, with mouthpieces in open court a little more vociferous than usual.

It seemed to us that violations of speed laws, no smoking laws, no parking laws, anti breach of peace laws and laws against heaving beer cans at cops showed no decline whatever on special day.

We asked a jurist, a school superintendent, a minister and a couple of very estimable Bar Association members about National Law Day, 1962, and got reply they had heard it mentioned in a vague sort of way, but it had skipped their minds. Let's be more forceful about it, folks. Otherwise "National Lawlessness Year" will win easily.

NEW YORK'S special traffic chief, Hank Barnes, is having so many arguments with city officials he may have to use the "scramble" system to cross from one dispute to another safely.

Ex-President Eisenhower says abstract paintings seem to him to be something driven over by a broken down flivver loaded with paint. Oh, come now, they're not as easy to understand as that.

Ford admits it has lost $11 million in preparations for new small car, the Cardinal, through abandonment of idea. Maybe this was one auto which should have a compulsory safety belt for the designers.

Museum exhibit shows many gowns of yesterday, all completely hiding the fact females had legs. They seem funnier today than high-wheeled bicycles.

Over on East 17th ave there's a union whose leaders have long danced the political twist. Virtually each time the Communist line contorted, so did they. There came a moment in their corkscrew ideological life when they were running some tough strikes, and they needed at least $100,000.

These union chiefs in the headquarters of the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers put a call in for Jimmy Hoffa in Washington. That was early in January 1960. Shortly Hoffa saw to it that $200,000 worth of U. S. Treasury 2 1/2 per cent coupon bonds, belonging to the Teamsters, were turned over to the National Savings and Trust Co., 15th st and New York Ave. NW, Washington, D. C. The Teamsters bonds were to guarantee a loan of $100,000 to the militant Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers.

A year later, the Subversive Activities Control Board reported. "On the basis of the entire record, it is concluded that respondent (the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers) is substantially directed, dominated, or controlled by individuals who art, or within three years have been actively engaged in, giving aid or support to the Communist party of the United States . . . and is serving, or within three years has served, as a means for the giving of aid or support to such Communist party. It follows that respondent (MMSW)

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our 17-year-old son received a piece of mail from New York which did not look like ordinary advertising junk. "Personal" was written on the envelope in bold letters.

When the boy came home I handed it to him. He opened it. "Holy smoke! what trash!" Then he pitched it into the wastebasket. When he left the room I retrieved it.

There was a folder of nudes and semi-nudes in color, which could be ordered for 50 cents each. Also offered was a recording of "Dolly's voice" as she speaks to you, and only you, about things every successful lover should know. A separate folder offered a volume on sex, which would arrive in a plain wrapper and promised "shocking and exciting information."

When I finished reading the material I was nauseated. Isn't this against the law? What can people do to keep such trash out of their homes. It makes me boil to think that somebody is getting rich by preying on young people this way. Thanks for your help.—ANGRY MOTHER.

Dear Mother: Smut peddling is a $400 million-a-year business. The unconscionable scoundrels who deal in this filth were practically "untouchables" until 1958 when Congress toughened the law. All pornographic mail should be handed over to the local Post Office authorities. The law now says those who mail pornographic material can be tried in the city where the stuff is received, and they must face a local judge and jury. The fine for the first offense is $5,000 and five years in jail. The fine, of course, means little, but that stretch in the housebow is a real deterrent.

Office Mystery

Dear Ann: A certain fellow who works in our office is very good-looking. In fact, he's too darned pretty, if you know what I mean. His voice is rather high pitched and he wears his hair with a dip in front. He also likes pastel shirts, mostly pink and lavender. He's a pleasant person, minds his own business, and is probably the most creative one in the department.

What I'd like to know is how can we tell for sure if there is something wrong with him?—OFFICE GANG.

Dear Office Gang: There's no way to tell for sure if something is "wrong" with him. Some perfectly normal males have high-pitched voices, long hair and like pastel shirts.

By the same token, some masculine appearing males with deep, rich baritone voices and crew-cuts are anything but all-american boys.

Since the person you describe is pleasant, minds his own business and does his job, why don't you do the same?

Club Treasurer

Dear Ann: My husband and I belong to a pleasant social club made up of wives and husbands who work for a large company. We meet once a month for dinner at a restaurant.

My husband is the treasurer of this club but I don't think we can afford the "honor." The dinners must be paid for in advance and he writes out his personal check. The couples are supposed to pay him "later."

He never has come out even yet. Every month something goes haywire. Some couples who sign up don't show. If they have a good excuse such as "the baby got sick" he hasn't got the nerve to collect.

Please suggest a way out—short of resigning. —TREASURER'S WIFE.

Dear Wife: Why must the dinners be paid for in advance? Surely the restaurant would be willing to allow each couple to pay that night. If not, find another restaurant — or another treasurer.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

In Case of Fire...

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

is a Communist infiltrated organization as defined in the (Subversive Activities Control) Act . . .

Now, it's a free country. Mr. Hoffa can direct his union to lend its money to anybody he chooses to support. Maybe he just hasn't gotten around to reading such dire decisions. But, if you'll forgive me, when you get away out here and take a good look at this union, its politics for the moment run second to another thought.

Jimmy Hoffa has made a mutual assistance pact with this union, thus causing considerable agitation in anti-Communist circles. But what has been overlooked is the truly tremendous power this gives the Teamsters, not the metal miners leaders.

This Mine-Mill Union has jurisdiction over men who dig and refine some 85 per cent of the nation's copper in 25 states.

This union, some of whose officers have refused under oath before congressional committees to affirm or deny membership in the Communist party, reaches into Canada's vital metal and uranium fields. Its contracts control the men at the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. This is the largest lead-zinc smelting operation in the world.

This union's membership sits astride the mining of nickel made scarce now by Castro's seizure of U. S. government pits in Cuba. This nickel is needed for tubing in hydrogen bomb installations. This union covers strategic heavy water plants, uranium mining and refining.

Even if its political line were not what it is, this union is a powerful ally for a leader in the transportation field. Tie in to this combine Pacific Longshoremen's chief Harry Bridges, star speaker at the Mine-Mill international convention in Toronto, Canada; and add to the grouping at least the Canadian leader of the United Electrical Workers, C. S. Jackson, another convention speaker—and you have a powerful industrial alliance.

All of which brings to mind a question put to that old red, white and blue lad, Jimmy Hoffa, on Oct. 13th, 1961. He was on the witness stand. His questioner was J. Sourwine, chief counsel of the Senate's internal security subcommittee:

"What alliances," asked Sourwine, "if any, with other Communist-dominated unions do you think would aid the welfare of your membership?"

"I do not know," suavely replied Hoffa, "of any Communist-dominated unions. If you tell me who they are, I will tell you whether I think there is any advantage of having a pact with them."

He's a smoothie, that Mr. H. But maybe he's so busy polishing himself he forgot to read the material on his mutual assistance partner put out by the Subversive Activities Control Board.

When it charged the Mine-Mill with being pro-Communist it did so after a hearing which took 9,721 pages of documents and testimony. More than 300 exhibits were introduced. It heard nearly 150 witnesses. Then the board said Mine-Mill was a pro-Communist operation.

Now whose word will Hoffa take, our government's or the others.

JFK Soft on Labor

By DAVID LAWRENCE

President's Speech to UAW Shows Partiality

The whole country has been waiting to see if President Kennedy would be just as firm with labor unions as he recently was in his crusade against the steel companies.

To put it another way, the nation has been waiting to see whether Mr. Kennedy is indeed an impartial president of the United States, or just a political tactician eager to do whatever is necessary in his judgment to win votes and financial support from labor unions for his next political campaign.

An answer has come more clearly than most observers thought it would. It came in the opening and closing paragraphs of the address which President Kennedy carefully prepared in advance to deliver to the annual convention of the United Auto Workers — one of the largest labor unions in America. He didn't follow his prepared text in detail, but an official text of certain important sections of the speech was released by the White House just before the President started speaking. Two of the excerpts read as follows:

"I appreciate your slogan and your sentiments. In the legislative and political battles which lie ahead, I am counting on your support."

At the end of the document, after a long discussion of labor-management problems, came this plea for votes from the President:

"I am here today to ask your help in building on this beginning. We need progress in the Congress this spring and summer—we need victory at the polls this fall — and on our success at home rests our success around the globe, in pursuing the cause of freedom."

Both these sections of the address which the President prepared for presentation to a big labor union contained his first outright bid for political support in the coming congressional elections. This raises a question of "conflict of interest" on the part of a chief executive who is supposed not to seek or accept favors from any group involved in governmental action and policy.

Yet Mr. Kennedy has boldly phrased his appeal for the reelection of a Democratic party majority next autumn. Since the pronouncement was prepared for delivery to a large labor union, it will be widely interpreted, especially in labor circles, as a sign that Mr. Kennedy does not intend to do anything that might possibly offend the labor unions which collect campaign funds for him and his party.

Usually presidents of the United States refrain between campaigns from activity in partisan politics except to attend fund-raising dinners. To find President Kennedy making an appeal for campaign support from a big labor union scarcely a month after he cracked down on big business is bound to make people wonder whether he can be impartial. He sent out detectives to interrogate newspapermen at night so as to get evidence against the steel companies to present to a federal grand jury. He used the contract power of the Department of Defense to coerce steel companies to refrain from participating in a price-increase movement.

DESPITE ALL those facts of intimidation against big business, President Kennedy nevertheless told the United Auto Workers that he really doesn't use any coercive powers at all. His exact words in the speech were as follows:

"We possess and seek no powers of compulsion, and must rely primarily on the voluntary efforts of labor and management, and their sense of public responsibility, to make certain that the national interest is preserved. . . .

"This administration has not undertaken and will not undertake to fix prices and wages in a peacetime economy. We have no intention of intervening in every labor dispute. We neither are able nor willing to substitute our judgment for the judgment of those who sit at every local bargaining table in the country. We can suggest guidelines for the economy — but we cannot fix a single patty for every plant and industry."

While the President thus disclaimed any responsibility for wage settlements, he reserved the right to criticize price changes and to call them "inflationary" whenever he is so disposed.

As for the much-talked-about "guidelines" of "productivity," the President said to the convention that all three groups — labor, management and the investors — can "reap the rewards of that productivity, and still pass lower prices on to the consumer."

THE PRESIDENT called abstractly and vaguely for self-restraint in raising wages or prices. But nowhere was there a specific recognition of the need for higher prices in order to earn a fair return to the investor — productivity in profits.

Nowhere did Mr. Kennedy chide even gently the chief of the Auto Workers Union, who the night before had issued a report to the convention which said:

"Wages and salaries, at least in the immediate future, must increase faster than our normal potential" for increasing productivity."

Since this seemed to be inconsistent with what President Kennedy had previously stated as his policy, the auto union president, Walter Reuther, merely said later on that he had meant, of course, that all this would be "non-inflationary."

So it comes down to the simple political truism of the day — that it's "inflationary" and a violation of "productivity guidance" when any large business increases its prices to meet wage scales forced on it by strikes or threats of strikes, but it's "non-inflationary" when a labor union — a staunch supporter and financial ally of the President in his political campaigns—comes out for higher and higher wages irrespective of "productivity guidelines."

Farm Bureau members are putting stickers on the speedometers of cars and trucks which read: "Are You Driving Carefully?"

Ask yourself this question, because more than 38,000 people are killed each year on highways in the United States and another 1,500,000 are critically injured.

Three out of four traffic deaths in Ohio occur on highways in the open country and of all the fatal accidents, 65 per cent occur within 25 miles of home.

Descendant of Man Who Led 'Bounty' Mutiny Visits U.S.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Fletcher John Christian, whose great-great-grandfather led the infamous mutiny on the Bounty in 1788, sailed happily toward Holland today, enjoying the solitude of the ship's bridge.

"So many people; so many questions, and I do not know what to say," said the wrinkled, weather-beaten 64-year-old man at his Church greeted him.

Fletcher John was astonished at the size of buildings in this city, and he wanted to see color television.

"It's good to leave home for a while," he said of his first journey beyond the Fiji Islands. "But to go away and leave it forever—no, I don't want to do it."

He declined to compare modern civilization with life on his tiny island of Pitcairn, where he is chief magistrate.

There is a lively tourist trade with ships calling at Pitcairn and every time the Willem Ruys stopped there, Christian went aboard to talk with the captain. Once he said he'd like to make a voyage.

So when the Willem Ruys left Pitcairn on April 26, Fletcher John was aboard for a 10-week cruise as a guest of the Royal Rotterdam Lloyd Steamship Line. This was his first stop en route to Holland.

A religious man, Christian neither drinks nor smokes. The 120 persons on Pitcairn are members of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

He said fishing and gardening are the chief occupations and selling souvenirs to tourists earns the average resident about $850 a year.

He remembered seeing the original movie about "Mutiny on the Bounty" while visiting aboard a ship in Pitcairn harbor in the late 1930s and recalled, it was enjoyable.

"Actually, we don't know much about the true story of it—we have only the legend handed down from generation to generation," he said.

On the cruise he spends much time on the ship's bridge. It's quiet there, and "not so many people."

Theresa McLaughlin Is Wed To Vernon Daniel Phillips

Theresa Ann McLaughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McLaughlin of Sarasota, Fla., became the bride of Vernon Daniel Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips of Hanoverton, at 1 p.m. Saturday in St. Phillips

Neri Catholic Church at Dunganon.

Palms and lilies decorated the altar for the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Joseph Werner.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Leroy Ridgeway, the bride was gown in a street length dress of white nylon organza and Chantilly lace with long sleeves and scooped neckline.

Long streamers fell from two white satin roses which adorned the full skirt. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught to a crown of starched lace and pearls, and she carried a white prayer book topped with a miniature arrangement of white roses, lily-of-the-valley and carnations.

Rita Rose was maid of honor and wore a blue dress with white accessories and pillbox hat with short veil. Her flowers were pink carnations and red roses.

Carl Welch of Summitville was best man.

At the reception at Mary's Restaurant in Hanoverton following the ceremony the bridal table was centered with a three tiered cake topped with a tiny bride and groom under an arch of lily-of-the-valley. The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Helen Schmied.

Mrs. Roy Painter, Mrs. Agnes Ridgeway and Mrs. Margaret Phillips, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Joseph McLaughlin, sister-in-law of the bride, served the 50 guests.

A graduate of United High School the bride is employed at Mary's Restaurant.

Mr. Phillips is a graduate of Lisbon High School and is employed by Western Electric at Youngstown.

Following a honeymoon to Florida, where they will visit the parents of the bride, the couple will live with the bridegroom's parents.

Torrid DiSalle-Rhodes Battle Looms In Fall

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—What shapes up as a torrid battle for the governorship in Ohio's general election next November figures to shake the state's voters out of the apathy they displayed Tuesday.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, seeking re-election, and James A.

Rhodes figure to slug it out in a whiz-bang campaign.

Republican Rhodes, after barely exercising his windpipes during the primary campaigning in which he had but token opposition, will be going after DiSalle and his fiscal policies with both barrels loaded.

Democrat DiSalle, after contenting himself with a largely defensive fight against the volley of criticism from his Democratic primary rival, Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy, promises to go on the attack against State Auditor Rhodes.

After beating McElroy in a fairly close vote, DiSalle said: "Between now and November, Mr. Rhodes will have a lot of questions to answer."

Rhodes, of course, will have plenty of questions of his own as DiSalle, the incumbent, will have to answer for his policies, programs and administration.

Fewer than 1.25 million balloted in the gubernatorial primaries, less than one-fourth of the qualified voters.

It would be quite a turnout if Republicans, who strongly carried the state in the 1960 presidential year, comprise less than 47 per cent of the gubernatorial electorate as they did Tuesday.

In the primary, of course, Rhodes was a cinch and many stayed home.

Unless a Republican torrent sweeps the state in November, the major candidate with the toughest road to hoe appears to be John Marshall Briley, the GOP nominee for U.S. senator. Briley received tough competition inside his own party from Charles E. Fry and John S. Ballard.

He beat them, but all he has to do now is unseat U.S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche, a Democrat who is one of the state's best all-time vote-getters, one who can attract voters from both parties.

Another interesting race could develop for congressman-at-large, where it's one "big name" against another. Robert Taft Jr., son of the late "Mr. Republican," and a young Democrat named Kennedy—no relation to the clan—won nomination. Taft breezed in the primary, while Richard D. Kennedy, an unknown, 38-year-old Cleveland real estate agent, won after spending only $300 campaigning.

Candidates who do not file the reports on time are disqualified by state law from seeking office again for the next five years.

such sessions, an array of merchandise—including a mink coat—should be paraded before the audience, complete with price tags. Then the salesmen and their mates should be told how many extra sales would be needed to pay for each article.

"Is this motivation of salesmen consistent with the soft sell or the hard sell?" asked Eisenberg.

Ferdinand Nauheim, a Kalb, Voorhis partner, replied that the purpose would be to get salesmen's wives to understand and sympathize with their work because they must necessarily be away from home a great deal during the evening, which could cause resentment.

3 Persons Injured In Car Mishaps

Two Lisbon women were hurt when their car went out of control and crashed into a bridge on Rt. 30, about four miles south of Lisbon, at 7:40 p.m. Wednesday.

Margaret Price, 21, the driver, suffered contusions of the head and Becky Hickman, 23, a passenger, received lacerations of the right hand. Both were treated by a doctor in Lisbon.

The Highway Patrol cited Miss Price for reckless operation. Officers said she was traveling south on Rt. 30 when she drove off the berm on the right side, lost control and crashed into the bridge on the left side of the highway.

Ernest B. Wilson, 72, of RD. Salineville, suffered abrasions of the scalp and face but did not require treatment after his car sideswiped with a tractor-trailer on Rt. 644, about one-half mile north of Summitville, at 2:15 p.m. Wednesday, the Patrol reports.

Both vehicles were traveling north, the Patrol said, when Wilson's car edged toward the center of the road just as the truck started to pass. The truck driver, Arvie Wimer, 33, of Alliance, was not hurt.

differences are quite natural. Adenauer said in Berlin this week that the authority proposal is unworkable. He also said he thought the talks would come to nothing, and he suggested it was dangerous for them to go on indefinitely without results.

The chancellor is known to object to a provision in the authority proposal that would give East Berlin and East Germany membership on the 13-nation authority. He is strenuously opposed to any agreement with the Soviet Union which in his view would afford a degree of recognition to the East German communist regime.

Estes-Politicos Link Studied

New Angles Bared In Investigation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators were reported today exploring stories that some Washington politicians or their wives held financial interests in firms which profited from dealings with Texas financier Billie Sol Estes.

They also have received reports that the taxpayers paid some hefty and unnecessary freight bills for shipping government-owned grain by unusual routes to storage elevators in Texas owned by Estes. The reports from Texas said the grain could have been shipped at far less cost to grain elevators owned by others who sought and failed to get the business.

These are just two angles the Senate Investigations subcommittee is exploring in its efforts to find out how the Pecos man amassed a fortune at the age of 37.

Estes was indicted last month by a federal grand jury for fraud in connection with chattel mortgages he was charged with selling on nonexistent fertilizer tanks.

His troubles mounted Wednesday when the government slapped him with $554,162 in marketing penalties for alleged illegal dealings in cotton acreage allotments. Estes has declared himself bankrupt and his creditors face heavy losses.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., senior Republican member of the investigations subcommittee, confirmed reports that its staff is sifting through subpoenaed documents which should, confirm or explode stories that political figures profited from investments in companies which had dealings with Estes.

Cites Favored Treatment — Mundt said Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman will have a lot of explaining to do as a witness in the subcommittee's hearings. He said Freeman's denials that Estes received favored treatment from the Agriculture Department are in bold contrast to violence.

Mundt said evidence produced already in a Texas court of inquiry shows Estes was required to post only 2 cents a bushel bond for millions of bushels of government grain stored in his facilities, while competing firms had to put up 12 cents a bushel. "This certainly is favoritism," Mundt said.

Mundt said he expects the subcommittee will demand some light on how Estes, after having been assessed $45,000 penalties by the Agriculture Department on earlier challenges of his operations, was appointed by the Kennedy administration to the National Cotton Advisory Committee.

Mundt said he figured this could only have resulted from influence high up and he wants to know who exerted it.

In a separate interview Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said he believes the investigation may show lax administration at lower echelons. But, Ellender said: "I believe Freeman has clean skirts in this situation. When he found there was something wrong he called in the FBI, just as he should do."

Land Option Taken At East Palestine — EAST PALESTINE — Mayor Robert Harding announced today that the city has acquired a six month option to purchase one and one-half acres of ground on Park Drive for the expansion of the new sewage treatment plant.

The owner, Robert Davis, is asking $2,550 for the land, including damages. Officials thought the ground belonged to the city, but a survey revealed it did not.

Final purchase awaits the appropriation of money by City Council. Plans and specifications for the expansion are being drawn. Estimated cost of the project is $330,000.

Scarred walls of ancient Coventry Cathedral rose bleakly above above mounds of charred rubble after the raid in 1940.

This new just-completed cathedral has been reconstructed on the same site of the destroyed 600-year-old structure.

Ancient Coventry Cathedral, blasted into a burned-out shell by Nazi bombers during the blitz of 1940 which almost completely destroyed the British industrial city of Coventry, has been rebuilt of pink sandstone. It is scheduled to be consecrated on May 25. Cost of the new $3,500,000 edifice is being paid by the British government, public subscription and through donations from individuals all over the world.

Kennedy Says Unity Talks In Laos Must Be Speeded

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says the unity talks in Laos must be speeded along before the sputtering cease-fire explodes into a more hazardous situation.

He told his news conference Wednesday that the pro-Communist rebels had clearly breached the cease-fire agreement Sunday by storming a stronghold of the royal Laotian government and the United States has expressed its concern to the Soviet Union.

But, he added, negotiations between the royalists, Communists and neutralists toward formation of a neutral government must go on.

"I agree it is a very hazardous course but introducing American forces which is the other one—let's not think there is some great third course—that also is a hazardous course," he said.

He urged all three sides in restive Laos—pro-Western royalists, Communists and avowed neutralists—to resume their effort to form an independent government.

The longer the negotiations drag on, he said, "the more hazardous the situation becomes."

Kennedy called for prompt action to halt the shooting in Laos during a news conference which took him over a diversified route, from savings and loan associations to the conference tables of Europe.

The President said savings and loan associations have misinformed the public about an administration proposal—passed by the House but in trouble in the Senate—to withhold taxes on dividends and interest.

He opened the conference with a statement contending defeat of the measure would benefit "only those whose evasion of present taxes is costing every taxpayer dearly."

Kennedy estimated evasion on dividends and interest amounts to $800 million a year in taxes.

Moving into international waters, Kennedy declared the United States would continue talks with the Soviet Union in pursuit of a settlement on Berlin. He minimized differences with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's West German government overmakeup of a proposed international authority to supervise access to Berlin.

a U.S. suggestion offered toward negotiations. But he protested that leaks and public debate of bargaining alternatives make it "very difficult to carry on any negotiations with the Soviet Union."

The United States bears the major burden, Kennedy said, and has the right to explore possibilities of improving the Berlin atmosphere. Recalling Winston Churchill's dictum that "It is better to jaw, jaw than to war, war," Kennedy said:

"We shall continue to jaw, jaw and see if we can produce a useful result."

The President dealt this way with other inquiries:

Press—To a wave of laughter, Kennedy said "well, I am reading more and enjoying it less" when asked his opinion of the press. But he said the press is doing its job "and I am attempting to do mine."

Nuclear—Only after very careful scientific deliberation, he said, will the United States set off a nuclear test in space. The government is studying whether a space blast would disturb the Van Allen radiation belt and hamper scientific discovery.

Put-in-Bay, in Lake Erie, is rated as the third best freshwater fishing area in the United States.

Man Kills Son After Hearing 'Prowlers'

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Two teen-aged brothers slipped out of their house early Wednesday for a walk and found the doors locked when they returned an hour later. Their father, Christy A. D'Andrea, 40, heard his sons and thought they were prowlers.

D'Andrea called police. Just as two patrolmen arrived, he fired a shotgun through the back door window. The blast killed his 15-year-old son, Joseph. His other son, Robert, 14, wasn't hurt. D'Andrea, a pipe fitter, was questioned and released, but police inspector Maurice Mumford said the case will be turned over to the Lorain County grand jury.

GUilty OF MURDER

CLEVELAND (AP)—George L. Sims, 39, of Cleveland was found guilty Wednesday of second-degree murder in the death last July 18 of his wife, Ruth. Sims, a city maintenance man, was accused of punching and kicking his wife when he said he found her drinking instead of making his supper. Sentencing was postponed pending a defense motion for a new trial.

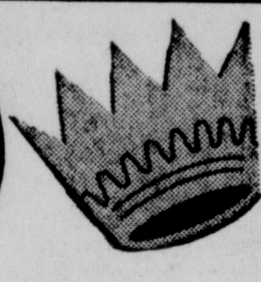

Eighty-five of the 105 counties in Kansas have been producers of oil or gas.

HELD IN SLAYING

CINCINNATI (AP)—Moses E. McCray, 41, has been bound over to the Hamilton County grand jury on a charge of first-degree murder in the shooting of Frank Spencer, 22, Saturday night at the Roxy Theater in Loveland. McCray, operator of the Roxy, told police Spencer was annoying a woman ticket seller. He said Spencer drew a knife on him when ordered to leave the theater.

Body of Man Who Fell In Creek Found

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — The body of Frank Fowler, 70, was recovered from Pymatuning Creek at Orangeville, north of here, early today by members of the Orangeville Volunteer Fire Department.

Fowler, who lived in the Trumbull County village, apparently fell into the creek Wednesday while cutting trees along the creek bank, authorities said.

Ex-Canton Man Jailed For Fraud

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Up to 10 years in prison are ahead for Curtis Elmer Crist, a former insurance salesman in Canton, Ohio.

Deliberating only 25 minutes, a U.S. District Court jury found Crist, 42, guilty Wednesday on five counts of fraud which the government charged ran into millions of dollars.

The defense rested its case without calling any witnesses to refute Asst. U.S. Atty. Lloyd Bates' prosecution during the seven-day trial.

A federal grand jury in Tampa indicted Crist last fall, charging he represented himself as owner and operator of automobile rental agencies throughout the nation, promising huge returns for investors.

Defense attorney Steadman Stahl told the jury, "We do not deny that he got the money." But Stahl insisted the government failed to prove fraud, that there was a lack of evidence that Crist had not indeed invested money in a rental franchise.

The witnesses testified they invested with Crist but failed to get the returns he promised.

Bates introduced evidence showing Crist filed no income tax returns for the past two years after reporting $8,000 earnings for 1959. Stahl countered that Crist had a $648,000 income tax judgment against him.

Judge Albert H. Reeves imposed consecutive five-year sentences on two counts and concurrent five-year terms on the other three counts.

Detroit Blasts Angels 6-3 for Second Straight Win

Yanks Nip Boston; Twins Edge Indians

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Al Kaline continues to roll. Rocky Colavito seems to have taken his first wobbly steps and Detroit may finally be ready to move in that American League pennant chase.

With hot-hitting Kaline driving in two runs with a double and homer No. 9 and slumping Colavito collecting three RBI with a triple, the Tigers belted the Los Angeles Angels 6-3 Wednesday night for their second straight victory after halting a five-game skid.

Kaline, who has never hit more than 27 homers in his 10-year career, is off to a fast start with a .363 batting average and the surprising nine homers.

Colavito is batting a tepid .190, has yet to hit a homer and has driven in only nine runs in 22 games.

The victory left the Tigers four games behind the pacesetter New York Yankees, who broke up Bill Monbouquette's no-hit bid in the seventh inning with four earned runs to whip Boston 4-1. Minnesota's third-place Twins shoved runner-up Cleveland two games back by edging the Indians 2-1.

Baltimore defeated Kansas City 6-3 as Brooks Robinson tied a major league record by hitting his second grand slam homer in two games, and Washington and Chicago split a two-night doubleheader. The Senators won the first 9-3 with the White Sox taking the nightcap 7-6.

Colavito got the Tigers the decisive runs with his bases-loaded smash in the fifth inning, then protected the lead by robbing Billy Moran of a three-run homer with a fine catch in front of the left field seats in the seventh. Jim Bunning (4-1), won it. Ted Bowsfield (1-1) took the loss.

Held hitless for 6 1/3 innings by Monbouquette (2-3), the Yanks struck suddenly after Tom Tresh got the first hit on a bunt. Roger Maris' liner was dropped by Gary Geiger and one out later Yogi Berra walked to load the bases. Elston Howard cleared them with a double, and Moose Skowron drove in Howard with a single. Whitey Ford (3-1) won it.

The Twins gave Jack Kralick (2-2) all he needed with a pair in the first. Kralick allowed only five hits—one John Romano's third inning homer—before he was lifted in the eighth for reliever Ray Moore. The loser was Gary Bell (2-2).

Robinson's grand slam capped a six-run surge in the second inning off Ed Rakow (3-2). It was enough for Milt Pappas (3-1), who held the A's to five hits, struck out 13 and retired the last 16 men in order.

Southpaw Don Rudolph (1-0), appearing for the Senators for the first time, stopped his former White Sox teammates in the opener with an eight-hitter. John Buzhardt (4-2) was the loser.

The White Sox earned a split by chasing rookie Steve Hamilton (0-1) in the seventh. Joe Cunningham's two-run homer in the sixth had pulled the Chicagoans even. Ray Herbert (2-1) was the winner.

Terry Sheets Stars for Victors

Fourth Street Posts 47-14 Win Over Prospect Thinclads

Paced by versatile Terry Sheets, the Fourth Street thinclads had little trouble routing Prospect 47-14 in a grade school track meet Wednesday evening.

Sheets led the field in both of the first two events as the Fourth Street aggregation claimed all but one of the seven competitions.

In the 50-yard low hurdles, Terry raced the distance in 8.5 to place ahead of his twin, Tom, and teammate Gary Franklin. Terry then dashed the same distance without the hurdles in 6.7 for his second win — also ahead of brother Tom and Franklin.

Terry's other two firsts were in the broad jump, where he sailed 14-9 1/2, and in the 220-yard relay where he teamed with Tom, Franklin and Zilly Wilson. Winning time in the relay was 20.3.

Fourth Street's other wins were in the shot put and the 440-yard relay. Ricky Liber heaved the shot 28-4 to cop that event. Second place went to Tom Sheets with a distance of 28-2 while Franklin placed third to give all the points to Fourth Street.

Wilson, Gary Bryan, George Spack and Randy Erath teamed to run the 440-yard relay in 1:04.2 for a fourth victory.

Jones won Prospects' only first place, clearing the high jump bar at 4-1.

Hurlers Hit by Managerial Paring Knives At Deadline

By BOB GREEN Associated Press Sports Writer

May 9 was a bad day for pitchers. This time however, it wasn't opposing batters who were the dispensers of gloom and woe. It was the calendar.

Midnight Wednesday was the deadline for major league clubs to cut their squads to the 25-player limit. And, surprisingly, pitchers were the chief targets of managerial paring knives.

Don McMahon, Joe Nuxhall, Sherman (Roadblock) Jones, Al Cicotte and Jim Umbricht were among the more familiar names involved as the major league teams went through their last scramble to reach the limit. Several teams had reached the limit well in advance of the deadline.

McMahon, a veteran relief pitcher who helped Milwaukee to two National League pennants and a world series victory, was dealt to the Houston Colts in an outright sale. The others drifted back to the minors. Nuxhall, once a steady pitcher with the Cincinnati Reds, was given his outright release by the Los Angeles Angels. Earlier, he had failed in a trial with Baltimore.

Jones, expected to be one of the New York Mets' starters, was 0-4 and relegated to the bench when the new NL club decided to option him to Syracuse. Both Cicotte and Umbricht were optioned by the Colts to Oklahoma City of the American Association, which also will get outfielders Al Heist and Don Taussig from the new Houston club.

McMahon, a big right-hander who had three big years with Milwaukee, tailed off to 6-4 last season and was 0-1 this year after a long spring holdout.

The Braves also optioned utility infielder Lou Klimchok to Louisville of the American Association.

Baltimore optioned pitcher Bill Short and utilityman Ozzie Virgil to Rochester, and made room for the return of pitcher Jack Fisher from the disabled list by selling first baseman-outfielder Marv Throneberry to the New York Mets. The Mets will cut one more player when Throneberry reports Friday.

Season To Start Tuesday

City Softball Opener Postponed One Day

The season opener of the Salem Softball League has been postponed from Monday until Tuesday, league officials announced today.

Rusty Tomlinson, director of city parks, decided the extra day would be needed in order to get the field in shape. Three Class A games are slated for Tuesday.

All team managers, or their representatives, will meet Friday night at the Memorial Building to draw up a schedule for the first week of play.

Five teams have entered in the AA division to date. Last year's winner, Herron Transfer, is not competing but Old Dutch Beer, Stepanic's Tavern, last year's runner-up, and Lisbon Industrial Mining have entered again this season.

New teams in the league include Lincoln Machine and Tullis American. The Alliance Amvets, winner in the A bracket last year, may move up to Class AA.

Entries in the A league include Mile Branch, Italian Club, E. W. Bliss Co., all returnees from last season, with new teams, Adam's Sohio Service, American Fireclay of Canfield and Salem Democrat Club. Other possible entries include Shaffer Ford, Lisbon Hotel and Sheely Appliance of North Lima.

Class AA plays Mondays and Thursdays with Class A competing Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

Any team wishing to enter the league is urged to have a representative attend Friday's meeting.

Canfield Speedway Expands Race Program to Nine Events

The overflow of race cars has forced Canfield Speedway officials to increase the pit size and also add one more race to the program. As a result some 70 cars are expected to be on hand Saturday night.

Last Saturday night, 65 were in the pits and several more drivers have notified the speedway they would be in Saturday night's lineup.

A total of nine races will be staged. However, the regular 8-race program will be run and extra events will be added. This will make the 7th and 8th races the two features - a 25 lapper for the late models and 20 for the amateurs.

Several Warren pilots are entered in the amateur field and Bob Stephens will be trying hard to gain the checkered flag. He placed second in two features this season, behind Don Beach of Niles opening night and Chuck Daugherty of Poland last week. Stephens drives a 1954 Ford.

Salem drivers have also had their share of the glory. Ken Suggett tied for 4th with Beach last week and also ran 4th in the opener. Gene Sechrist won a heat duel last week, while another Salemite, Merle Welling, took the checkered flag in the amateur pursuit.

St. Louis Slips Past San Francisco 7-3

Reds Clout Phillies; Braves Outlast Bucs

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
A comeback pitcher who has again found the victory touch, a reserve catcher with a hot bat, and an aging marvel who's simply one of the greatest hitters in baseball annals.

That was the vital combination as the St. Louis Cardinals threw a roadblock at San Francisco's streaking Giants in the National League's feature attraction Wednesday night.

ailment-plagued reject by Philadelphia when he was picked up by the Cards two years ago, maintained his perfect season's record in the 7-3 win.

Simmons became the first pitcher to go the distance against the Giants this year in their 28 games, throwing a nine-hitter in his fifth victory and fifth complete game in as many starts. Carl Sawatski drove in four runs with a homer and two singles, zooming his average to .389. And Stan Musial, 41, inched to within one hit of Honus Wagner's NL record of 3,420.

Los Angeles moved into third place in the NL with a handy 9-2 romp against Houston, Cincinnati clouted Philadelphia 7-4 and Milwaukee outlasted Pittsburgh 4-2. Cold weather at Chicago forced postponement of the New York-Cubs game.

Simmons was rapped for three homers among the nine hits he allowed but kept the league leaders in check. San Francisco's Orlando Cepeda hit homer No. 9 against the lefty in the fourth, and reliever Mike McCormick and Jim Davenport connected in the seventh.

Sawatski hit a two-run single against Jack Sanford (3-2) in the first, his homer in the fourth and a run-scoring single in the fifth.

The Dodgers peppered Houston pitching for 14 singles and a pair of doubles, backing up a strong eight-hitter by southpaw Johnny Podres (2-2).

Nicking Dean Stone (2-2) for 11 hits and four runs in seven innings, the Dodgers made it a rout with five more runs off Dave Giusti and Hal Woodeshick in the ninth.

Cincinnati gave Bob Purkey hefty support, hammering Phillie pitchers for 15 hits. Purkey yielded only five hits and two earned runs. The Reds pounded in front by scoring twice off Art Mahaf-

Johnson Threatens To Halt Title Bout

By GEORGE ESPER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harold Johnson said today he doesn't feel like the National Boxing Association light heavyweight champion that he is and threatened to pull out of his title bout against Doug Jones Saturday night as the result of a continuing court feud with his manager over money.

But Alfred M. Klein, a member of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, said, "There's not the slightest chance" of the bout being called off.

"We'll get it straightened out," said Klein as he prepared for a conference with attorneys for Pat Olivieri, Johnson's manager. "I'm surprised he (Johnson) talked that way. All hands will confer and we'll have it worked out."

Johnson said in an interview that regardless of the consequences he would pull out of the 15-round nationally televised bout at the Arena if his purse is held in escrow by legal action or if Olivieri is allowed to take the manager's share immediately after the fight.

Olivieri subpoenaed Johnson into court Wednesday to testify at a hearing at which the manager sought a preliminary injunction to block Johnson from going through with any matches not arranged or approved by Olivieri.

Johnson said he didn't feel like a champion because he felt he was being treated unfairly and dragged into court where false accusations were made against him that he owed Olivieri money. He said the whole thing, occurring three days before his fight has upset him and he couldn't say what kind of a psychological effect it would have on him in the ring.

Pitcher Bell Loses 'Ring' for Indians

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Gary Bell, a righthander, has lost his touch for the Cleveland Indians the last two games he's worked.

Bell pitched only two-thirds of an inning Wednesday night before the Minnesota Twins routed him in their 2-1 victory over Cleveland.

He was tagged for three hits and both runs in the first inning. He left with the bases loaded and two out.

It was the fifth time Bell was chased from the mound this season and evened his record at 2-2.

Cleveland Manager Mel McGaha used four more pitchers and five pinch-hitters in a vain attempt to overcome the narrow margin. The defeat dropped the second-place Indians two games behind the front-running Yankees.

The Indians only run was a second-inning homer by catcher John Romano, his third. They missed several good chances and stranded six runners, five of whom were in scoring position.

Jim Perry (1-0) will start for the Indians today against Don Lee (2-1).

fey (2-4) in the first and were ahead 6-1 after three.

Frank Robinson, showing signs of breaking out of a prolonged slump, singled three times and knocked in three Cincinnati runs.

A 15-hit barrage led by Joe Adcock and Frank Bolling and neat stint of clutch relief by rookie Hank Fischer carried the Braves over the Pirates. Adcock homered and singled and Bolling stroked three singles as Milwaukee took a 4-1 lead, but the Bucks threatened in the eighth by loading the bases against winner Ron Piche (2-0). Fischer taking over allowed the Pirates to salvage only one run out of the rally. Bob Friend took the loss, his second in six decisions.

Chocolate Chantilly Torte Easy to Make

This rich chocolate chantilly torte is simple to make with sponge layers split in half and filled with whipped cream and a very special chocolate mixture that uses sweet cooking chocolate. Serve this dessert on club night. It is sure to go over big with all the members.

2 packages (1/2 lb.) sweet cooking chocolate, 3 tablespoons water, 2 egg yolks, 2 tablespoons confectioners' sugar, 2 egg whites, 1 cup whipping cream, 2 baked 8-inch sponge layers.

Place chocolate and water in saucepan over low heat. Stir until chocolate is melted and smooth. Remove from heat, add egg yolks, beating vigorously until smooth. Add sugar and mix well. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry.

Fold into chocolate mixture. Let cool slightly.

Whip cream. Split sponge layers in half, making 4 thin layers. Put layers together by spreading each with 1/2 cup whipped cream and then topping with one-fourth the chocolate mixture.

On top layer, spread chocolate mixture to edge of cake so that it runs down the sides in several places. Chill torte in refrigerator for 4 to 5 hours or overnight. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

Middle Age

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Every age in life has its rewards. Sometimes the truth of this is pretty hard to see—but it is there. The age that many people seem to fear or resent the most is middle age. Its onset brings a kind of panic to them.

"I didn't mind being young, and I'm not afraid of being old," a friend wailed recently. "But I hate the thought of being caught in between. What possible advantage can there be in being middle-aged?"

Well, if a fellow really puts his mind to it, he can find a number of blessings in the mid-span of life. Such as—

As your hair gets thinner, you find it takes less and less muscle to comb it. This enables you to conserve your strength for more important tasks.

You also find out that the shiner your scalp grows the less dan-druft you have. There is no longer much for it to hold on to—or hide behind.

Your wife and you get along better and have fewer violent word storms. After all, if you no longer can hear her—and after 45 few men do hear their wives very clearly—how can you disagree with what she says? Her advice comes to have the pleasantly vague sound of ocean surf, end-lessly beating on the same old shore.

At the office the boss picks on you less and less after you start sporting that 25-year pin in your lapel. When you pull a blooper, he simply sighs and says, "Well, I guess you can't really teach an old dog new tricks."

You may not sleep as well as you used to, but you find it easier to get a little rest during the day. As a matter of fact, just being middle-aged makes a man feel so worn out he can take a nap in any posture—even while standing on his head.

Medically speaking, you become more and more fascinating to doctor. He dismisses the aches of the young as growing pains and the aches of the elderly as incurable, but any symptom of the middie-aged stirs his active professional interest and sympathy—probably because he is middle-aged himself. Most doctors are.

You can now carry an umbrella or don your rubbers on a day of potential showers without feeling cowardly. A sense of proper protective self-caution is becoming in one at your time of life.

Teen-agers pay no attention to you, but then teen-agers don't really pay attention to anybody or anything except another teen-ager of the opposite sex.

On the other hand, people over 70 still regard you as young and full of promise. They even envy you.

In middle age you abandon all the useless dreams that cluttered your earlier life. You have only one goal left—to grow as old as you can.

But there's no hurry about it. You're perfectly willing to take all the time there is in the world.

Mahoning Advisory Committee

Members of the Mahoning County Extension Advisory Committee re-elected C. A. Malmberg of Goshen Township as president; Robert Kenrich of Green Township, vice president; Mrs. Sally Crumbacher of Beaver Township, secretary; and Orville Slagle of Boardman Township, as treasurer for 1962.

A sub-committee of Cliff Morrison, Canfield Township; Mrs. Lester Hawke of Poland; and Mrs. John Reynolds, Smith Township, was appointed to investigate possible rural-urban activities and to report on recommendations for 1962 at the July 10 meeting.

Plans are underway for an annual meeting of all Mahoning County Extension committees to be held in conjunction with the 4-H Advisers banquet. This is tentatively scheduled for Nov. 8.

With the change in the makeup of the county population and the effect upon Extension programs, it was agreed that another review of future plans was in order. So as to develop effective and economical programs, four sub-committees of the County Extension Advisory Committee will be appointed at the July 10 meeting.

These will look ahead separately in the 4-H, Home Economics, Marketing and Agricultural Program areas. Following this, the overall Extension Program for future years will be developed by all four sub-committees meeting

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Ever add mushrooms to cooked frozen baby green lima beans? Strips of onion and green pepper, simmered in butter, add zest to cooked snap beans.

Walnuts and pecans add delightful flavor and texture to plain muffin batter, but if there are no nuts in the house and caraway or poppy seeds are on your kitchen shelves you can use one of these for a change.

When your family goes vacationing this summer, do try the special foods of the region you visit: Lime pie and black bean soup in Florida, shoofly pie in Pennsylvania Dutch country, crab cakes in Maryland and Indian Pudding in New England are only a few of the delicious regional dishes it's fun to taste.

If you've inherited some old cookery utensils from Grand-mamma, get them out and use them. Pie crimpers and wheels, pie-dough scrapers, bread-stick and rosette pans still work well.

Clover Mites are a Pest

Clover mites have appeared during the past week in sufficient numbers to cause concern in many homes.

These insects vary tremendously in numbers from year to year. They are about the size of a pinhead, move rapidly enough to be observed, and when "squashed" leave a reddish-brown color.

Their appearance in any house

(or elsewhere) is absolutely no reflection on the housekeeper's ability. Clover mites, to the best of my knowledge, just "sort of" wander into the house from the lush spring plant growth (clover and other plants) looking for a rough surface on which to lay eggs. They eat nothing in the house such as a clothes moth does. However, they do cause great concern because of the annoyance factor, especially when they arrive by the thousands.

Recommended controls (or prevention) include removing the grass in a 24-inch band at the base of the foundation (they do not cross dirt as readily as a grassy area) and spraying the outside of the foundation wall and a strip of grass (or ornamentals) 7 to 8 feet wide with: Aramite, Chlorobenzilate, Malathion, or Kelthane.

Once the insects are inside the house and out in the open, aerosol sprays containing Pyrethrum will give control. Applications are effective for only a few hours and must be renewed often.

Intercollegiate Elephant Race Set In California

FULLERTON, Calif. (AP) — There's no ivy in the halls of 3-year-old Orange County State College.

But there's going to be plenty of ivory on campus Friday when the school hosts the world's first intercollegiate elephant racing meet.

Orange County says it has 12 entries lined up—and may get one more—as a result of what started as a tongue-in-cheek challenge to an elephant race to 18 universities two weeks ago.

Since then the school has been flooded with inquiries and good wishes. Administrators even got a telegram from former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who advised the sponsoring elephant racing club: "Best of luck to you. I know from sad experience that there's more to pachyderm racing than meets the eye."

The elephants, rented from circuses, zoos and animal farms for $150 and up, come in a variety of sizes.

The largest is a five-ton grey eminence nicknamed, by students of sponsoring Chapman College, "Calvin Coolidge"—because he doesn't choose to run.

Harvard's entry, weighing 4½ tons, is named "Sonita." There's a dainty entrant called "Popsie," sponsored by Santa Monica City College.

Other entries come from the University of Nevada, California Institute of Technology, California State Polytechnic at Pomona, California Lutheran, Long Beach State, Santa Ana College, Fullerton Junior College and the Northrop Institute of Technology at nearby Inglewood.

Orange County State's entry was rented a week ago from a private zoo.

Dean of Students Ernest A. Becker said the University of Washington is trying to enter the meet, which would bring the number to 13.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. H. T. HYMAN

Questions And Answers

Q—Is it possible for pregnancy to take place after the menopause?

A—I suppose anything is possible, but certainly conception after the "change" must be of rare occurrence, if ever it occurs.

As a matter of fact, ovulation ceases ordinarily about a year before the cessation of periodic bleedings. Hence, despite the occasional appearance of a "change-of-life baby," the vast majority of women become infertile before they actually enter the menopause.

"Thank you for writing that there must be some things besides animal fats and cholesterol that cause heart trouble and that shorten lives.

I am the youngest of our family and am 75. The oldest is 84 years old. All of us are in good health in regard to blood pressure. And all are active. Our mother, who is now 103 years old and still in good health, would tell us children to eat lots of fat, because it would keep us warm in the winter.

"So, all our lives we have done the same thing. Our family processed all the meat we ate and made all our own bacon and lard. And, oh how we children loved those crackles after rendering the fat. And, ever since, we wouldn't eat a piece of meat unless it was about one-third fat. We never threw away any fat or left any on our plate. So, there must be something else about heart trouble that the medical profession hasn't found yet." — Mrs. J.

U.S.-German Split Clouds Berlin Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—A potentially dangerous open split between the United States and West Germany clouded the outlook today for future U.S. talks with the Soviet Union on terms of a possible Berlin settlement.

U.S. officials said the Kennedy administration is fully determined to go ahead with the probing conversations. But there was some uncertainty as to just how fast Secretary of State Dean Rusk would be able to move. He is due to have another meeting with Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin in the next week or so.

Officials here said it was not possible to assess immediately the full impact of the open breach between Adenauer and the Kennedy administration over the conduct of the U.S.-Soviet talks.

But any such rift in Allied ranks is always worrisome and potentially hazardous because of the possible impact on other Allied problems.

The line which Adenauer has taken in public discussion at Berlin this week was described by these officials as differing sharply from the line which Foreign Minister Gerhardt Schroeder took in talks with Rusk at Athens as recently as last weekend.

Adenauer told a news conference Tuesday that "I see no ground for continuing the talks" between American and Soviet officials. He also asked at one point in the news conference: "Do you think there is no danger in continuing talks indefinitely without result?" The effect of his question was to suggest that he thinks it might prove dangerous to carry on the exploratory discussion in definitely.

CRAB STUFFED SALAD

1 can (6 1/2 ounces) king crab meat, 1 cup finely diced celery, 3 tablespoons mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon cider vinegar, 2 medium avocados, salad greens, paprika.

Drain crab and remove any cartilage; flake, saving 4 pretty pieces for a garnish. Mix flaked crab with celery, mayonnaise, and vinegar. (If prepared ahead, cover and refrigerate.)

At serving time, cut avocados in half lengthwise; twist apart; remove seeds and outer covering; arrange on salad greens.

Fill avocado cavities with crab meat mixture; sprinkle with paprika; garnish with reserved crab pieces. Makes 4 hearty salads.

SATURDAY NIGHT SNACK

We've given new flavor to one of our favorite recipes for turn-over pastry and our tasters approve.

Ham Turnovers, Celery and Olives, Crackers with Sour Cream Onion Dip, Fresh Fruit, Pound Cake.

HAM TURNOVERS

1/4 pound (1 stick) butter or margarine, 4 ounces cream cheese, 2 cups sifted flour, Ham Filling.

Cream butter, cream cheese and Parmesan. Work in flour, about 1/2 cup at a time, with a spoon; chill in 2 flat portions. Roll out one portion at a time on prepared pastry cloth into a 12 by 8-inch rectangle; cut each portion into 6 four-inch squares. Roll leavings from both sheets of dough to make 4 more squares. Put some ham filling over the center of each square; fold over so edges meet in a triangle; press edges together with fork tines. Bake on a cookie sheet in a hot (425 degrees) oven until lightly browned—about 15 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 16.

Ham Filling: Grind 1/2 pound cooked ham and mix with 1/4 cup heavy cream, 1/4 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon dry mustard and 2 tablespoons pickle relish. Use any leftover fillings as a spread.

MERIT SHOE CO.

370 E. State Salem, C.

Salem's new Post Office building, a one-story brick, concrete and glass structure at the corner of Penn and Columbia St., will provide ample work space for postal crews, in comparison to the 50-year-old building which is being abandoned at State and Lincoln.

The new structure contains 12,199 feet of enclosed space, in addition to 17,766 square feet of maneuvering, driveway and parking area. A rear loading platform of 1,178 square feet of open platform space.

The pictures above give some indication of the spaciousness of the city's newest modern edifice. It will be dedicated at appropriate ceremonies Sunday afternoon, with Congressman Wayne L. Hays making the principal talk.

The land where the Post Office stands was formerly occupied by five residential properties on Penn Ave. and Columbia St., having a frontage of 150 feet on Penn and 261 feet on Columbia.

The new building consists of a box lobby, service lobby, private offices for the postmaster, assistant postmaster and the superintendent of mails, storage and utility rooms, large work room and mailing platform where all mail will be received and dispatched. It has automatic heat and air conditioning.

It provides many more lock boxes, particularly in the large drawer type for business and industrial concerns, Postmaster Ray Reasbeck says.

There will be space for nine patron autos to park adjacent to the building on the north side, a special area for five rural carrier cars, and some 15 employee parking spaces along the west side of the lot.

The building is owned by Ralph A. Durbin of Euclid and leased to the government. It was constructed by the Charles Schulz Building Co. of Parma.

The contract was consummated in September 1961, and workmen started to clear the lots last Oct. 16, with actual excavation started on Nov. 1.

Mix butter or margarine and minced chives; use as a spread for the bread when you are making sandwiches of hard-cooked eggs, ham, sardines, salmon or tuna fish.

Northwest County Court

Fines and forfeitures totaling $465 were collected from 38 persons at Judge Luther Donbar's Northwest Columbiana County Court here during the past week. Thomas Shaffer of Petersburg, who was charged last July by Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan with malicious destruction of property at Zeigler's Farm Market and the Normandy Isle Restaurant on the Lisbon Road, was fined $25 and costs. Shaffer was picked up earlier this month when he returned home after being out of the state.

The Ohio Highway Patrol had its radar equipment set up at various points in this area during the week, and as a result, 19 motorists were fined for speeding and 11 others forfeited bonds on similar charges.

Fined for speeding were: Liesel Falkenstein, 1234 Cleveland St., $10; Pearl E. Jones, Lisbon, $10; Frank G. Maragas, Forfeiting $15 bonds for speeding were:

Donna R. Webber, 252 W. 7th St.; Richard Demastes, Painesville; Ira M. Chaback, Jackson Heights, N. Y.; Roy Garmon, Hartville; Earl Wollam, East Liverpool; David R. Lewis, Eastlake; James W. Wilson, New Cumberland, W. Va.; William Edward Baker, Cleveland; Charles M. Kisner, Wickliffe; Howard James Anson, Warren; and Branko Skalkjak, Masontown, Pa.

Also forfeiting bonds were Robert C. Looman of Chester, W. Va., $25, for driving without an operator's license; and Larry K. Dawson of Weirton, W. Va., $20, for crossing the yellow line.

Others fined were: Martin H. Niverth, Millsboro, Pa., failure to display, $10; Hazel A. Zimmerman, RD 2, Salem, left of center, $5; Faye Vernon, RD 1, Beloit, expired driver's license, $15; Harvey S. Radcliff, RD 1, Hanoverton, stop sign, $5; and Kenneth T. Smith, RD 2, Lisbon, crossing yellow line, $10.

Judy Davis of RD, Leetonia, entertained eight members of the Country Cousins 4-H Club recently.

East Liverpool Man Receives Jail Term

LISBON — Robert Wayne Beatty, 23, of the Y & O Rd., East Liverpool, who pleaded guilty to operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent and requested probation, asked Wednesday that the investigation be stopped and that he be sentenced immediately.

He told Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp that he didn't want to wait four months to find out whether he would get probation. Judge Sharp fined him $500 and sentenced him to six months in the county jail. All the fine and three months of the jail sentence was suspended. His previous confinement can be applied to the jail sentence, Judge Sharp said.

Beatty was charged with the theft of a station wagon owned by Robert Wycroft of East Liverpool last Feb. 28. Beatty wrecked the station wagon and another car while trying to elude East Liverpool police who gave chase after spotting the stolen car. Beatty was ordered to make restitution of $1,100 for the damages to the cars at not less than $20 a month.

How Old Is Man?

By ROBERT C. TOTH

The earliest of man's direct ancestors, Zinjanthropus, who is supposed to have roamed African lake shores 1 1/4 million years ago, is probably not all that old, two scientists have reported.

The age assigned the beetle-browed creature "must be taken cum grano salis," the professors commented drily.

"Zinj" was found in Tanganyika in a layer of ground which was dated 1 1/4 million years old. The trouble is that the dates for layers above and below his remains are inconsistent with his age, according to Dr. William L. Straus Jr. and Charles B. Hunt of the Johns Hopkins University. The rock below "Zinj," for example, is dated 1.3 million years old, which makes it younger than the creature. It obviously should be older.

"We do not know which dates are accurate," wrote the scientists in Science Magazine. "We suspect that . . . some or all of the indicated dates are in error."

Mr. Hunt said he would "guess" the age given the creature is "too high." In a phone interview he said it probably is "roughly a million years." Mr. Hunt is a geologist. Dr. Straus is professor of anatomy and physical anthropology in the Hopkins' School of Medicine.

Zinj was found by Dr. and Mrs. Louis S. B. Leakey, the anthropologists, in 1959. The soil surrounding his bones was dated last year by two University of California scientists, Dr. J. F. Evernden and G. H. Curtis. Strata above and below the deposit have also been dated.

The dating involves measuring the amounts of radioactive potassium and argon in the soil. The potassium decays at a known rate into argon gas. The ratio of the two materials remaining tells how long ago the material was deposited, according to the theory. Remains of creatures found in a deposit must be same age as the soil.

At the Olduvai Gorge excavation site in Africa, the four layers from top to bottom have been dated as follows: 360,000 years; 1,081,380 million years; 1.75 million years (Zinj was found here); and bed rock at 1.3 million years.

The professors argued not that the laboratory determined the ratios incorrectly, but that the ratios may not be an accurate measure of age. Depending on the type of soil, more or less argon gas might have escaped into the air, giving either an older or younger age than true, Mr. Hunt said.

Different minerals from the second layer, for example, gave ages that differed by 300,000 years. And the bed rock is supposedly 450,000 years younger than the layer above it. "We suspect that other discrepancies would also appear if additional kinds of materials were analyzed," the scientists wrote.

"We doubt that we as yet know which kind of material gives dependable results," they said.

They were even more concerned by inconsistencies between the radioisotope dates and those derived from geology and paleontology factors.

The scientists had no quarrel with the importance of Zinjanthropus as a link to man's past. The discovery was an "outstanding contribution" to the field, they said.

If his age is really 1.75 million years, it raises many important questions about how fast man evolved from lower animal forms, both physically and culturally, and how fast other creatures evolved. "Until the contradictory dates" and other difficulties are ironed out, however, "the dates are of doubtful value," the scientists said.
